

LOCAL NEWS.

WEDNESDAY EVENING, OCTOBER 9

For this section fair, warmer weather till Friday, southerly winds.

A SAD OCCURRENCE.—Last night, Wm. S. Wheatley, son of Mr. Wm. Wheatley, who lives on Columbus street, nearly opposite John's Academy, shot Auburn Pridemore Hagan, son of Patrick Hagan, esq., of Scott county, a cadet at that institution, with a self-cocking revolver. Dr. Purvis was called in immediately, but the ball having entered the right eye and penetrated the brain, was necessarily fatal, and the young man, who was a very large and well-developed youth in his 18th year, died about two o'clock this morning. Coroner Powell being notified of the occurrence summoned a jury of inquest consisting of Messrs. G. Wm. Ramsay, foreman, and Laurence Stabler, Dr. A. F. Cox, Charles B. Marshall, John T. Cox, and Wm. L. Padgett, who, after hearing the testimony of the Principal of the academy, of Dr. Purvis and of Capt. Webster, to whom young Wheatley had voluntarily surrendered himself, and young Wheatley himself, rendered the following verdict:

City of Alexandria, to wit:

An inquisition taken at St. John's Academy, in this city, on the 9th day of October, 1889, before R. C. Powell, Coroner of Alexandria city, upon view of the body of Auburn P. Hagan, there lying dead.

The jurors sworn to enquire when, where, and by what means Auburn P. Hagan came to his death, upon their oaths do say that he came to his death from a gunshot wound inflicted by a pistol in the hands of Wm. S. Wheatley, which pistol was accidentally discharged while being carelessly handled; and we adjudge that the occurrence was not due to any want of discipline or care on the part of the superintendent of the academy.

Subsequently, young Wheatley, being still in custody, was examined, at the instance of Commonwealth's Attorney Holt, before Justice May, Col. Francis L. Smith appearing as his counsel. The same testimony being given and the verdict of the jury of inquest having been considered, Col. Smith moved the discharge of the prisoner, and the Commonwealth's Attorney stating that he did not think a case could be made against him on the testimony, he was discharged. It is proper to say that young Wheatley is not, and never has been, connected with the Academy.

PERSONAL.—Capt. P. W. McKinney, the democratic candidate for Governor of Virginia, arrived here last night from Farmville and left this morning for Leesburg where he spoke to day. To-night he will speak at Round Hill. He was accompanied to Loudoun by Mr. H. R. Pollard, of King William. Capt. McKinney brings the most favorable and encouraging reports from all sections of the State and says the democrats are in excellent trim. From Loudoun Capt. McKinney goes to Clarke county.

Among the callers at the democratic headquarters in this city to-day were Messrs. H. R. Pollard, of King William; Jas. Hay, of Madison, and E. E. Meredith, of Prince William.

Ex-Senator R. E. Withers, who is attending the Knights Templar convocation in Washington, was in the city yesterday.

Mr. J. H. Terrett, formerly of Fairfax county, but now of Nashville, Tenn., is on a short visit to his old home. He was in this city yesterday.

Rev. H. M. Jackson, D. D., of Richmond, has gone to the General Convention of the Episcopal Church in New York as a substitute for the Rev. Dr. Norton, of this city.

Mrs. James H. Cline, accompanied by her daughter, Miss Edith, and Mrs. Orelia Cline, of Richmond, are in the city to spend the winter.

Mr. Geo. C. Wilde, formerly of this city, but now of Richmond, was here to-day on a short visit to his many friends.

TEMPERANCE LECTURES.—The lecture at the First Presbyterian Church last night was the last of the series of temperance addresses by Col. Geo. W. Carter in this city. Those who attended them enjoyed an opportunity, seldom afforded, of hearing such an able orator on temperance. Last night his talk was mainly to the moderate drinkers, proving to them that by their habit they were incapacitated for planning their future career, and cited to them illustrations in corroboration of his argument. He also proved that the teachings of the bible were against the moderate as well as the excessive drunkard, and closed with an earnest appeal to the members of the church to support the temperance movement. The Colonel's lectures in this city have been both eloquent and instructive and it is hoped he will return at an early date. In the absence of the District Chief Templar, P. D. C. T., H. M. Foltz, will accompany Col. Carter to Accotink and to-night, at that place, will organize a lodge of Good Templars.

POLICE REPORT.—Last night was clear and cool with eight lodgers but no prisoners at the station house.

Justice May this morning disposed of the following cases:

Richard Fitzhugh, colored, charged with stealing a cushion and blanket from Hamilton, was held for further examination. W. S. Wheatley, charged with the killing of young Auburn P. Hagan, was discharged.

KNIGHTS TEMPLAR.—Old Dominion Commandery No. 11, K. T., kept open house to-day and entertained at lunch all the Templars and their lady friends who visited the city. The Washington relics in the Masonic Lodge rooms were also on exhibition.

MESSES. FRETZFEIDER & CO. announce in another column their fall opening of ladies' cloaks and plush coats, ladies' gents' and children's under wear and a splendid line of 4 all-wool tricot, together with a large assortment of fall and winter dry goods notions, etc., which they will sell at rock-bottom prices. They invite an inspection.

Facts Worth Knowing.
In all diseases of the nasal mucous membrane the remedy used must be non-irritating. The medical profession has been slow to learn this. Nothing satisfactory can be accomplished with douches, snuffs, powders or syringes, because they are all irritating, do not thoroughly reach the affected surfaces and should be abandoned as worse than failures. A multitude of persons who had for years borne all the worry and pain that catarrh can inflict testify to radical cures wrought by Ely's Cream Balm.

The worst attacks of indigestion Simmons' Liver Regulator never fails to relieve.

MONETARY AND COMMERCIAL.

NEW YORK, Oct. 9.—The strength shown in the stock market yesterday afternoon remained over until this morning, and first prices were generally from 1/8 to 3/8 per cent. higher than last night's closing figures. The majority of the list, however, after a few slight advances, displayed a drooping tendency, but towards the end of the hour there was a better tone to the dealings, and at 11 o'clock the market was quiet and steady to firm, though generally at a shade below the opening prices. Money easier at 6 1/2.
